RULER

Never settling for last
I was born with the utmost wisdom

The only thing that matters, are the words that I live by
I command you under my name!

But why can't they reach their true worth?
Do I always have to be stuck with these people?

Heeey!

Friends are irresponsible!
Relationships are impossible!

Even fools can someday grow!
So, my servants, OBEY ME!

SWIM SWIM

Inside my dreams, I've been taught
Everything she told me, I held it to be good

No matter what she said, I always listened to her
Yet now, I know it's not enough

I'll tear everything down
Afterwards
I'll become like you...

Heeey!

To become like the Princess, that's always been my desire
To believe in myself, that's what I want to experience

I'll always protect your words
And with them, I'll lay everyone to rest!

RULER

Tell me, why are you so sad?

SWIM SWIM

I wonder if I'll be at peace with this?

~Music~

SWIM SWIM

I'll tear everything down
Afterwards
I'll become just like you...

RULER

Heey!

Friends are irresponsible!
Relationships are impossible!

Even fools may someday grow!
Therefore, my subjects, OBEY ME!

BOTH

To become like the Princess, that is my desire
To believe in myself, that's what I want to experience

I'll always protect your words
And with them, I'll lay everyone to rest!

And with them, I'll lay everyone to rest!

ENGLISH (SING-ALONG VERSION)

RULER

Striving for the best... I soar above the rest of them
I know I've been blessed... with wisdom far surpassing you

The only thing... worth treasuring... are words that I've... been lecturing!
In the name of me! Submit to my will!

Why can't people reach their very best...
All the rest...
Seems that I'm surrounded by a sea! Of foo-lishness!

Heeey!

Keeping ties with everyone... will only cause you grief!
Bonds! Love! Friendship! They only last so long...

Even through your foolishness, I know that you can grow!
That is why, from this moment on, heed and OBEY!

SWIM SWIM

I have always dreamed... of all the good that I could make
I was always told... the greatest path that I could take

No matter what, no matter when, I'll follow her... eternally
Nooow I can see, it's still not enough...

I will tear down everything I see...
Afterwards
I will be what you have always wan-ted me to be!!!

Heeey!

Wishing to become as you, the Queen that I can see!
Want you to believe in me, the best that I could be!

Treasuring your words to heart, I'll keep them safe within
And with them, I'll lay everyone... to rest for you!

RULER

Why does... your heart... seem so uneasy and restless, now?

SWIM SWIM

Since when... have I... felt so conflicted with doing what you've always taught?

~Music~
